

Leading the Future of Bioengineering & Chemical Engineering

INNOVATIVE OUTREACH.
ENGAGING PARTNERSHIPS.
TRANSFORMATIVE OUTCOMES.

The UCR Bourns College of Engineering adopts the vision to be a world leader in biomedical engineering education and research. Join this virtual session featuring Alyssa Anderson and Kimberly Uhls two of UCR's top Ph.D. students. Both engineers will conduct experiments in their respective research fields and highlight the skills, knowledge, and practices in their world of work.
